

DIRECT CREDITS

Starting in the year 2003, FIFOMI provides direct credits in response to the mining sector's demand, based on the current market conditions and based on the Mining Promotion Trust, in order to continue providing financial support to micro, small, and medium mining enterprises and their productive chain.

Based on market demands, FIFOMI has taken the task to make its processes more efficient, increasing competition, simplifying and making easier procedures and conditions to obtain financing.

In that sense, Mining Promotion Trust contributes with the financing policy for a sustained development of the mining sector, through promotion and diversification of schemes and financing programs, thus generating an important tool of the Federal Government to look after the needs of the mining sector and its productive chain.
